

The Empire Church Theatre

Built in 1877, the Empire Church Theatre is rich with historic atmosphere and classical charm. Completely versatile, the Church is the perfect space for weddings, ceremonies, receptions, parties, cabarets, cocktail functions, trade-shows, workshops, lectures, dinners and balls.

With its breathtaking stained glass windows and original organ pipes you know you have found that hint of 'something different' you are looking for. The Church's flexibility means our dedicated staff are able to transform the room from theatre-style to elegant reception banquet in a matter of hours.
